Open-ended questions can get your family talking about God in a natural, unstructured way. Here are some suggestions to get you started:

- Why do we obey God's commands/why does it matter what we do?
- Why does it seem like ungodly people succeed?
- How can we know God's will for our lives?
- How do we know if the choices we make in life are the right ones?
- How do we know God is listening when we pray?
- Do our prayers make a difference?
- How do I respond when a non-believer asks if I think they're going to hell?
- Should we evangelize or are our actions enough to witness to non-believers?
- Who is the Holy Spirit and how do I know He is in me?
- How do I love my neighbor as myself?
- How do you lead a person to accept Jesus Christ?
- What should or shouldn't Christians watch on TV?
- What does the Bible say about gossip?
- What is your plan for resisting temptation?
